

Redundancy Exercises SAT

Choose the correct answer from the following options

1. As a child, Steve frequently many times tested his mother's patience every time he broke dishes while cleaning them.
 - a. NO CHANGE
 - b. often
 - c. regularly
 - d. DELETE the underlined portion
2. Jenny's month long project of collecting flowers in different stages of development that took four weeks to complete was her favorite assignment thus far.
 - a. NO CHANGE
 - b. – taking four weeks to complete–
 - c. that took her four weeks to complete
 - d. DELETE the underlined portion
3. One of the company's most lucrative products was the talking stuffed dog, bought by millions nationwide during Christmas time.
 - a. NO CHANGE
 - b. lucrative and profitable
 - c. lucrative and successfully
 - d. lucrative, profit bringing
4. Many subscription based business models offer different payment plans– you can choose to pay a monthly smaller fee more frequently, or an annual larger fee each year.
(Test 3, 8)
 - a. NO CHANGE
 - b. every year.
 - c. per year.
 - d. DELETE the underlined portion and end the sentence with a period.
5. The public objection to the newly passed law was overwhelming, even immense, and so the government quickly repealed the legislation.
 - a. NO CHANGE
 - b. The public's objection to the newly passed law was overwhelming,
 - c. Overwhelming, even immense, was the public's objection to the newly passed law,
 - d. There was an overwhelming, even immense, reaction to the newly passed law

6. The whale pod that was spotted in 2011 by the coast of Mexico may revisit again, hopefully with new members.
- NO CHANGE
 - revisit
 - revisit possibly
 - revisit, larger and
7. The rapid influx of immigrants to America caused employers to be simultaneously hiring people for cheaper at the same time, much to the annoyance of workers who were already employed.
- NO CHANGE
 - simultaneously hiring people for cheaper at a single time,
 - simultaneously hiring people for cheaper at once,
 - simultaneously hiring people for cheaper,
8. Occasionally, daytime shooting stars, or meteors that are burning up from Earth's atmosphere, can be seen during the day.
- NO CHANGE
 - in the daytime.
 - in daylight.
 - DELETE the underlined portion.
9. Orion's Belt is usually seen in a visible way in the southwestern sky from the Northern Hemisphere between the months of November to February.
- NO CHANGE
 - observable in the southwestern sky
 - perceived in a visual manner in the southwestern sky
 - seen visibly in the southwestern sky
10. Specially cooked vegetarian dishes made without meat were served at the potluck in addition to the rest of the food.
- NO CHANGE
 - intended for non-meat eaters
 - made for the vegetarians
 - DELETE the underlined portion